BLAINE VERY FEEBLE.

His Mental and Physical Health Permanently Shattered.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 23.—Mr. Blaine is still very sick. His physicians, Drs. Johnston and Hyatt, are in daily attendance. General alarm is felt among his friends here regarding his slow recovery. The doctors were noncommittal when interviewed on the subject of Mr. Blaine's health. They are making no predictions. A temporary improvement in their patient is evidently not taken as very strong evidence that ultimate good health will be Mr. Blaine's portion. "Mr. Blaine may be better to-day or to-morrow," was remarked to-day by a person familiar with the sick room, "his health seems to have been permanently shattered. His decline began two or three years ago. Sometimes his throat troubles him; at another times, cold, to which he is subject, settles in his chest. The present illness is more serious than any he has had for some time. It is caused by disturbed digestion. That Mr. Blaine will never recover his health is a fact that everybody here is beginning to believe. Even with the great care he receives, the least baneful influence, either of a physical or a mental nature, causes a relapse. Every relapse leaves him less able to recover.

Archbishop Kenrick's Coadjutor.

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 23.—Fathers Seigler, MacCabe, MacCaffery, Walsh and Scaeffer had a long conference with the Venerable Archbishop Kenrick at his home on Saturday on the subject of a coadjutor for this diocese. The petition praying for the appointment was shown to him, but the position he took on the matter the priests refuse to make known. It is certain, however, that they left the house in good spirits, and from this fact it is inferred that he looked upon the subject favorably.

COMPLAINING TO CHINA.

Lord Rosebery Protests Against China's Infraction of Treaty Rights.

King Humbert Says Italy Desires Only Concord and Peace With All Nations.

Jas. G. Blaine's Health Permanently Shattered---The Homestead Strikers.

LONDON, Nov. 23.—Lord Rosebery, the British Foreign Secretary, has sent a note to Pekin complaining that the Chinese officials have violated treaty rights by forbidding British vessels to carry grain free from Shanghai to Tien Tsin, and permitting native steamers alone to carry such grain. The British right is held under a treaty made in 1880 between China and the United States, Great Britain in the treaty being accorded the most favored treatment. The Pekin Government urges that the United States by the adoption of the Chinese exclusion act has broken her treaty with China and has thereby excluded Great Britain from the benefit of the "most favored nation" clause.

Romance of a Newsboy.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Bertie Kearney, who was kidnapped in Montreal seven years ago, was found by his cousin, Alexander Kearney, an actor in the "Soudan" company, in this city last Saturday night. The discovery was made accidentally. Actor Kearney appeared at the Grand Opera House on Saturday night and after he left, he purchased a paper from a boy who was sitting on the steps of the elevated railroad at 6th ave. and 23rd street. The boy Bertie is now 12 years old. He was "stuck" on a bundle of papers and was crying bitterly. The actor asked a few questions the name and other facts, as he had been accustomed to accost every little waif he met, in hopes of some day running across the youngster. The lad said his name was Bertie, and told some other things about himself which led the actor to believe that he had at last found his long-lost cousin. He took the boy to his hotel and there became convinced that he was right by finding certain birth-marks. The boy says he was brought up by an Italian organ-grinder, who used him so brutally that he ran away a year ago. Since then he has lived on what he could earn by selling papers. It is probable that the Italian, whose whereabouts are unknown, was the kidnapper. Bertie's parents are dead, but he will find a happy home with his cousin's parents in Montreal.

Grover's Gone Wid a Coon.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Among the gifts which have been sent to Mr. Cleveland by enthusiastic persons in various parts of the country, that which came to him yesterday morning from the town of Selma, Ind., was the nearest to being a white elephant, although it was anything but elephantine in size. A small deal box was left by the expressman, which was opened with some caution by the butler, when a lively young coon hopped out and tried to appear unconcerned in his new surroundings. No name of the sender accompanied the animal, and while the members of Mr. Cleveland's family were greatly gratified by the attention, they did not know what to do with the coon. It was finally decided to send him to Central Park, where he would have comfortable quarters, and be able to grow up to a life of ripe coonhood. The president sent him up there, where he was received with consideration and introduced to the rest of the coons, with whom he proceeded at once to make himself at home.

Italy Desires Peace.

ROME, Nov. 23.—The Italian Parliament was opened to-day by King Humbert in person. He received an enthusiastic reception. In his address he spoke at some length of the attentions bestowed upon him at Genoa by the representatives of the most civilized nations, as evidence of the position which Italy holds in the community of nations as an unwearied supporter of concord and peace. He said he and his allies are endeavoring by vigilant care to preserve Europe from any cause of dissension, and added that the labors of parliament would commence under the guarantee of peace. He also said that the reforms in the army would insure the military strength against being diminished, while the army expenditures would be reduced.

Carnegie Mill Strike.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 23.—The strikers in Carnegie's mills at Lawrenceville held a special meeting this morning, at which all the strikers were present. Spirited speeches were made by the leaders. At 12:30 the meeting adjourned and a vote was taken to appoint a committee to confer with the Carnegie Co.'s officials to see that all strikers be reinstated in their former positions, and at former prices. It was also agreed that in case the committee met with a refusal from the company the strike will be continued. A meeting of the strikers will be held next Friday and the result of the conference with the Carnegie Co., will be made known at this time.

Ives the Financier.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 23.—A rumor that Henry S. Ives, the "Young Napoleon of finance," has secured control of the Ohio Southern railroad is causing considerable comment in railway circles here. The report that Mr. Ives has been successful in several large "deals" of late, including the Brooklyn dry goods house, and the Michigan Peninsular Car Company "deals," which netted handsome sums, leads even his Cincinnati friends to concede that he has regained his financial prestige to such an extent that his manipulating of the Ohio Southern is not at all unlikely.

WM. O'CONNOR DEAD.

The Champion Oarsman of America Passed Away This Afternoon.

TORONTO, Nov. 23.—William O'Connor, the oarsman, died here at 2:30 this afternoon.

[Wm. O'Connor was a native of Toronto, where he was born about 29 years ago. He first became prominent as an oarsman while he was a member of the old Bayside club of that city. He afterwards joined the Toronto rowing club, and for two or three years held the amateur championship of Canada. His first professional race was with Peterson of San Francisco, whom he defeated. He won the professional championship of America from Teemer and has held it ever since. In 1889 he rowed against the Australian Henry Searle, for the world's championship, on the Thames course, and was beaten. He has since won double-scull races in partnership with Edward Hanlan. O'Connor was a man of good character, and was much respected for his manly qualities, apart from his prowess at the oar.

THE PROUD MAN'S CONTUMELY.

To Vaccinate or Not to Vaccinate, That is the Question For Judge McDonald.

Dr. Praeger the Judge's Quietus Makes With a Nice Fresh Vaccine Point.

NANAIMO, Nov. 23.—On the arrival of the Government commissioners on the liquor traffic Monday, Dr. Praeger informed them that they would have to undergo inspection before they could enter the city, in accordance with the health regulations. Judge McDonald objected in strong terms and attempted to impress upon the doctor the dignity of his office, and said that he would not submit to such a gross indignity, and that such a proceeding in a twopenny halfpenny town like Nanaimo was ridiculous. Dr. Praeger politely pointed out that the law had to be obeyed by all, whether Supreme Court judges or merely ordinary citizens. He upbraided the judge for casting a slur upon a city before he had entered it. The judge underwent the usual operation.

Capt. Johnson declines to make any statement in regard to the collision between the steamers Cutch and Joan on Saturday. He feels confident that when he is called upon to give evidence in the case, he will be able to exonerate himself from all blame. The captain courts an enquiry, as it will be the means of defining the right of road.

The taking of the evidence of the crew of the Sergeant in the salvage claim was concluded yesterday and the solicitors and others in the case left for Victoria this morning. Before the case can be completed the evidence of the crew of the Maude has to be taken.

W. H. McCutcheon, who duped a few residents of this city in real estate "snaps," was arrested at the instigation of King and Casey of Vancouver on Saturday, and brought to Nanaimo last night. He is wanted by more than one person here, and before he "gets through" he will think he is having a hard time of it.

The Royal Commission to enquire into the liquor traffic opened its sittings here yesterday and many of the leading citizens were called to give evidence. The first few witnesses called were members of the Temperance Society, and although they would like to see prohibition worked successfully they did not openly advocate it. Magistrate Planta in his evidence said Nanaimo was a very orderly town, and stated that if prohibition was enforced here it would cause considerable trouble, as the law would often be broken. The evidence given throughout was somewhat similar to that given at Victoria. This city, with the exception of the Temperance Lodge, is entirely opposed to prohibition. The court sat again to-day, and it is expected they will complete their business this evening.

Stole Tremendously.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—C. Sinclair, cashier and confidential bookkeeper of the Armour Packing Co., has been missing since last week. The exact amount also missing from his employers' bank account is not known definitely. It is estimated that the company's loss will not be less than $50,000. Some believe that it will run up to $85,000. Sinclair, who is twenty years old, has a wife and two children. It is thought that he has gone to Canada. It is believed that Sinclair spent his stealings in speculation.

The Homestead Strikers.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Nov. 23.—There are 180 Homestead strikers indicted for the crimes of murder, treason, aggravated riot and conspiracy, to be tried at the present and the December term of the court. Little more than two-thirds of the number have been arrested. About 140 have been bailed out in the criminal court or by Alderman McCoster. Of this large number Hugh McDonnell and John Clifford are held without bail.

Killed by the Express.

ELKHART, Ind., Nov. 23.—Last night Miss Libby Miller, of this city, and Miss Josie Franklin, of Middletown, Ind., were driving into the city when they met the fast express on the L. B. and M. B. road at a suburban crossing. After the express passed they drove upon the track just in time to meet a passenger train going in the opposite direction. Miss Miller was instantly killed and Miss Franklin died within an hour.

For Colored Folks Only.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 23.—The colored people of this city have decided to raise $50,000 by payments of 10 cents per week, the sum to be invested in stores, groceries, shops, etc., in which all the employed will be colored.

PREMIER ABBOTT RESIGNS.

Authoritative Statement Made That His Resignation Has Been Forwarded.

Blair Wins in the Election Contest in New Brunswick for the Legislature.

The Manitoba School Dispute—Increased Shipment of Canadian Apples.

MONTREAL, Nov. 23.—It is authoritively stated that Sir John Caldwell Abbott, Premier of the Dominion of Canada, has resigned. A cable report has been received that Sir John will leave France for Canada on Thursday with the Hon. George Foster, the Canadian Minister of Finance. Sir John Abbott will spend the winter in Egypt, and it is reported has telegraphed his family to make arrangements to join him there.

Strictly Non-Committal.

MONTREAL, Nov. 23.—With reference to a rumor that had obtained currency in inner circles that Sir John Abbott's resignation was in the Governor-General's hands to-day, Mr. Harry Abbott was seen by a correspondent of the Witness. Mr. Abbott said he was not in a position to say whether the rumor was true or not. He had already denied a story that Sir John was going to winter at Cairo, and the last he had heard from him was that he intended to visit the continent.

New Brunswick Elections.

ST. JOHN, N.B., Nov. 23.—In the election for the Commons to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of C.N. Skinner, John A. Chesley, Independent Conservative, was defeated by the straight Conservative nominee, George Robertson, by over 200. In the Queen's county contest for the local Legislature Premier and Attorney-General Blair swept the county by 500. His opponent was also a Liberal.

The Manitoba Schools.

OTTAWA, Nov. 23.—The sub-committee of the privy council appointed to pave the way for the hearing of the Manitoba school appeal, will hold its first meeting on Friday, November 25th. Although Mr. Daly, one of the committee, will not be here, Mr. J. S. Ewart, of Winnipeg, will appear in behalf of the minority in Manitoba, and will probably make some motion or motions.

Canadian Apple Shipments.

MONTREAL, Nov. 23.—The apple export trade of Canada is closed for the season as far as the port on Montreal is concerned. There were shipped to the United Kingdom 470,480 barrels, an increase of 159,043 over the season of 1891.

Chapleau's Latest Offer.

OTTAWA, Nov. 23.—Hon. Mr. Chapleau has been offered the Lieutenant-Governorship of Quebec. It is said that he will accept.

Would Create Confusion.

PARIS, Nov. 23.—The three Conservatives and six members of the Left elected yesterday by the Chamber of Deputies as members of the Panama Canal investigation committee, and who subsequently resigned, proposed to be re-elected to-day and to have the committee completed by the election of more members of the Right who would be nominated by their colleagues. It is improbable that the Chamber will assent to the motion of M. Pourquery de Boisserai to invest the committee with powers of examining magistrates. This motion was debated on Saturday and the Government will oppose it. It would create confusion between the executive and judicial powers.

PORT SIMPSON HOSPITAL.

Opening of the New Public Hospital With Imposing Ceremonies.

The public hospital at Port Simpson was formally opened on Nov. 9th, most of the white residents of the town being present. After a look over the building, which occasioned many commendatory remarks by the visitors, Mr. Clifford took the chair and the following programme was followed out: Singing, Doxology; prayer by Rev. T. Crosby, Scripture reading by Rev. F. Pyemont; singing Watt's hymn, "O God our help in ages past;" address by Rev. T. Crosby; historical outline. Financial statement of hospital by Dr. Bolton; chairman declared the hospital open for reception of patients; singing, "God Save the Queen." Benediction by Rev. F. Pyemont; intermission and refreshments.

Election of board of directors from the benefactors of the institution; election of officers by the directors present.

The board consists of the following: Mr. C. W. D. Clifford, president; Mr. John Flewin, Government agent, 1st vice-president; Rev. T. Crosby, 2nd vice-president: Dr. A. E. Bolton, secretary-treasurer; Mr. J. L. M. Alexander, Port Simpson, Mr. George Williscroft, Georgetown, Rev. G. F. Hopkins, Bella Bella, Mr. R. H Hall, M.P.P., and Mr. W. H Dempster, of Victoria.

A few urgent surgical cases had been taken in before the formal opening and eighteen cases had been cared for in temporary quarters pending the completion of the building.

The institution will be open to all cases needing hospital care, reasonable charges will be made for board and nursing when the patient can afford to pay, and will be entirely free to the poor. The location, equipment and management of the hospital assure its being of great benefit to the district.

The death occurred recently of Mr. Alex. Hilton, one of the first and most respected citizens of Strathroy, at the age of 77 years. For many years he had held the position of assessor and was universally esteemed.

A cablegram has been received to the effect that the British Government will not allow the cattle on the disabled steamer State of Georgia, now at St. John's, Newfoundlond, to land, advising them that the cattle should be returned to Montreal to save the enormous cost.

A cablegram to the Empire from London says that Alexander McNeill, M.P., addressed a meeting of Lancashire and Cheshire Conservatives at Manchester on "The Commercial Union of the Empire." His views, it adds, were warmly and unanimously endorsed by those present.

John Douglas and William Bilshaw, both prominent builders in Toronto, have left the city, leaving their financial affairs in very bad shape. They also left anxious large and small creditors. They are supposed to have gone to the Western States.

A daughter of Mrs. Grimason, of Toronto, the lady who fell over the bridge at Niagara Falls on the occasion of the Pan-Presbyterian excursion in September and was rescued by Rev. Mr. Ramsay, died the other evening. It is believed her demise was due largely to the effects of the shock caused by her mother's terrible adventure.

A new swindle has come to light recently in Essex, worked by a couple of sharpers. One goes through the country on a first-class bicycle and strikes a town and claims to be hard up. To make a raise he sells his wheel for a sum and leaves town. A few days later, the other fellow comes along looking for a wheel which was stolen from him, giving full description and number of it. He discovers the wheel which was sold by his pal and claims it was stolen from him, proves his property and departs with it. The two sharpers have $20 or more to divide and leave for new pastures to work the scheme.

The Nicaragua Canal.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 22.—The Post this evening says editorially: It is gratifying to learn that San Francisco does not stand alone among the Pacific coast cities in her advocacy and encouragement of the Nicaragua canal project. The latest intelligence in this connection is to the effect that the members of the Commercial Club, the Tacoma organization of capitalists and business men, have forwarded to President Harrison a strongly written appeal in favor of congressional aid to the project. They have also requested the President to renew, in his next message, his recommendation of the great work. Manifestly the business men of the north coast are alive to their own interests and those of the Slope, and San Francisco capitalists and magnates should not incur any risk of being classed among those who follow in the wake of their northern neighbors, in the support of this most momentous enterprise. They have not done so heretofore, but they must see to it that they keep still in the van. The canal will benefit Tacoma, Portland, San Diego and all the other coast cities; but before and beyond all others it will aid San Francisco.

An Athletic Congress.

NEW YORK, Nov. 21.—The Amateur Athletic Union of the United States, in annual meeting here this evening, decided to hold an international championship meeting in Chicago next year during the World's Fair, the date to be selected by the committee. Measures were adopted to prevent in the future the reinstatement of professional athletes into the union.

The Washington Floods.

TACOMA, Nov. 22.—The first overland train from the east since Thursday last arrived this morning, consisting of two sections of 11 coaches and sleepers each. The Green River is reported to be a roaring torrent, many feet higher than ever before known. Western Washington has never been visited with such a storm as that which broke upon us last Thursday, continuing unabated until this afternoon—when it has in a measure abated somewhat—spreading disaster from Central Oregon to almost the central portion of British Columbia. In the valleys of the surrounding country the farmers have been compelled to forsake their homes and move to the foothills. Many lives have been lost, but owing to the meagre news and the impossibility of reaching many localities, the names and particulars are not obtainable. The Puyallup River, which empties into the Sound at this place, has spread over the Lower Puyallup valley until the country has the appearance of a vast lake or continuation of Puget Sound. This valley, however, extends from five to ten miles, and the waters cannot do great harm to farms having plenty of room, its force being spent and the overflow shallow. The Portland train arrived all right this evening and reports the track all clear. The Gray's harbor branch has several heavy washouts and a few small bridges are gone. The rainfall since Thursday was seven inches.

The Queen Going to Italy.

NEW YORK, Nov. 22.—Edmund Gates cables from London: "The Queen has decided to accept the Dowager Lady Crawford's offer to place the Villa Palmieri at her disposal if she visits Florence in the spring. This celebrated villa was purchased by the late Lord Crawford from the Grand Duke of Tuscany, to whom it had been bequeatned by an Irish lady, who resided there for many years. The villa, which stands in lovely grounds on the Fiesole Road, was re-constructed and greatly improved by Lord Crawford, and the Queen was delighted with the place when she passed a month there during the spring of 1888. Her Majesty is expected to arrive in Florence shortly before Easter. She has passed every afternoon during the last ten days of her stay at Balmoral in paying a series of farewell visits to the tenants of the Balmoral, Abergeldie and Birkhall estates, and to the cottagers around the village of Crathie. The Queen also visited the site of the new church of Crathie, toward the building of which she and Mr. Farquhar each subscribed £500. The foundation stone of this church will probably be laid by the Queen in May. The Queen is, in a few days, to hold a private investiture in the Garter corridor of Windsor castle, when Lord Rosebery will be invested with the ribbon and insignia of that office.

Peary's Arctic Expedition.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 21.—Gen. Isaac Wister, president of the Academy of Natural Sciences, to-day confirmed the report that Secretary Tracy had granted Lieut. Peary three years leave of absence. A second expedition will be made under the academy's auspices. The general said:—There are three objects in sending the expedition, which may be briefly stated as follows: First, to definitely determine the northern coast line of Greenland. Second, to ascertain if any land extends north of Greenland. Third, to reach the geographical location of the north pole, or get as near to it as possible. This journey will be attempted over the frozen surface of the Polar sea. I imagine the expedition will, of necessity, be a small one. The journey over the frozen sea will be made by Peary with but one companion.

Californian Chinamen.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—The Morning Call has had interviews with a number of Chinese merchants of this city, including the secretary of the Six Companies, and they report that a financial crash is imminent in Chinese quarters here. They say that the cause of alarm of a large number of Chinese firms is the exclusion law, with the expected depertation of those Chinese who fail to register. The secretary of the Six Companies says it is likely that when the Chinese New Year arrives, in February next, the Six Companies will disband and fully half the Chinese merchants of the city will go out of business. It is presumed from these statements that a large number of the wealthiest Chinese here will soon leave the country and return home.

FOOTBALL.

YALE VERSUS PRINCETON.

NEW YORK, Nov. 23.—Already the hotels are being filled with visitors who have come to see Yale and Princeton do battle to-morrow. Rooms not already occupied have been taken, and now it is impossible to get more than a cat hole in the great hostelries. The elevens with their substitutes, coachers and attendants, will arrive this afternoon and will perhaps show themselves in the lobby of the Fifth Avenue Hotel for an hour and then be tucked away to gather strength for the contest.

This game is to New York what the Oxford and Cambridge boat race is to London. An idea of just what proportions the crowd will be may be had from the fact that already 24,000 tickets have been sold and at least 1000 have been refused. There is standing room for about 15,000 people, and it will be one of the disappointments of the year if 20,000 be not crowded in. It is as great a certainty as anything can be that more than 40,000 men and women, or thereabouts, representative of the metropolis, will cheer the victors.

The betting will, properly speaking, not begin until to-day. One bet of $1000 against $600 was made by a Yale graduate and another of $500 to $250 was booked at the Hoffman House last night. Princeton is not asking so much odds as Havard did at Springfield, and the Yale men will find plenty of takers at fair figures. A little even money was placed last night that Yale's score would not be over 12, and some that Yale would not keep the Princeton from scoring. These, however, were mainly made by enthusiastic friends, and the betting and odds will not settle to anything like a market quotation until the friends of both teams meet at the hotels to-night.

COMPRESSED AIR.

Experiments With This Kind of Power at Niagara Falls.

Buffalo Express.]

Since the completion of the great power tunnel there has been considerable discussion among its projectors and the manufacturers here as to the most economical and practical form of power to be developed. Of course the intention of the tunnel company is to produce a large amount of electric power for transmission eventually to Buffalo and distant points and for use locally, but along with this form of power and direct hydraulic power, such as is furnished to the Niagara Paper Co. through its individual pits and tunnels, compressed air is suggested. It is claimed by some that this form of power has advantages over electrical energy direct, as there is no danger of wires burning out, fuses becoming destroyed, fires from defective insulation, etc. Its introduction is also said to be much cheaper to the average power-user, as it requires no extensive changes of engines or machinery. The ordinary steam engine, it is claimed, can be used with compressed air without the slightest alteration.

During the construction of the tunnel compressed air has been put to a practical test here. Every drill used underground or in connection with the tunnel work was run by it with entire success. The drills do not become heated, there was no smoke or steam to fill the tunnel, and nine times out of ten they worked more smoothly than those run by steam.

Among the most deeply interested in this subject was Arthur Schoellkopf, of the company controlling the old hydraulic canal. This waterway has been enlarged during the past summer to nearly double its former capacity, and it is the intention of the company to continue increasing the size of the canal as necessary. One of the principal features of the improvements is to be a power-house for furnishing compressed air, and it is believed that this will be the first of its kind in the world on so large a scale. Compressed air as a power will be used by the Carter Company, of this city, for running their large plant. The concern now gets its power by a long overhead cable from one of the paper mills. The cable frequently breaks and much trouble has been found with it. A number of the most improved compressors have been ordered and will be in position soon. The company will use this power and a machine shop adjoining it as well. The latter will use about twenty-five horse-power. Other manufacturers are looking into the matter, and the Niagara Falls Gaslight Company, which has under contemplation the putting in of an electric light plant for domestic use only, is also figuring on using compressed air.

Secretary W. B. Rankin of the Cataract Construction Company stated some time ago it was the intention of the power company to furnish compressed-air power as well a electric power. Its practical efficiency has been fully determined upon by the company's eminent engineers, and as a clean and reliable power for short distance transmission it was held equal to electricity.

THE SPANISH PRETENDER.

The Outbreak for Don Carlos, Who Aspires to the Throne.

London Daily Graphic.]

There has been of late a noticeable revival of Carlist activity in Spain, and signs are not wanting that there may be ere long another blow struck. For some years after the war the Government displayed a watchful vigor, which made further conspiracy almost impossible; but since then it has had its hands full with so many other domestic foes—Republicans, Federalists, Zorillists, anarchists and the rest of them—that the Carlists are left perforce almost unmolested.

For some time now they have been steadily at work perfecting their organization over the whole kingdom, and I am credibly informed that whenever the Carlist standard is again raised it will not be without something very like an absolute certainty of victory. Don Carlos is one of the most humane men alive, and the loss of life involved in the last war so affected him that he determined never to recommence hostilities so long as the issue remained at all doubtful. Committees have now been established in every town and village of the highlands, and to an almost equal extent throughout the rest of Spain; and each town has its club, if only a room or two, where Carlist literature may be read and where there are busts or portraits over the mantelpiece of Don Carlos and the Marquis de Cerralho, his accredited representative. Literature is freely circulated. The Correo Espanol, bright and pugnacious, is published daily at Madrid and contains constant references to Charles VII., his Queen, and Don Jaime, Prince of the Asturias, which the authorities allow to pass unrebuked. Several provincial towns have their weekly Carlist paper, and there is even a comic journal, the Calacuerdo, which mercilessly satirizes Senor Canovas del Castillo and all his works. Public meetings and banquets are constantly being held in various parts of the country, where allegiance is openly professed to the sovereign in exile, and the audiences are exhorted to make ready for the day when he shall return to enjoy his own again. A campaign of this sort took place last month among the mountain districts of Northern Spain, in the neighborhood of Santander, and it was the unanimity and enthusiasm displayed there which seemingly awoke the Government to the serious character of the movement.

The most active efforts of the Government have been directed to soliciting the Pope's co-operation in discountenancing the Carlist cause, but nothing is more unlikely than that His Holiness should agree to this. The acquiescence of Don Carlos in the Pope's orders that French Legitimists should abstain for the present from disturbing the republic has strengthened the ties which bound him to the Holy See, and the Carlists of Spain have been roused to renewed energy by the conception that their sovereign was now dedicating himself more exclusively to their interests. They remember that he is a Spaniard by birth and sentiments, and consider his triumph to be merely a question of time.

As a preventive of the Grip Hood's Sarsaparilla has grown into great favor. It fortifies the system and purifies the blood.

Long Endurance Pianists.

ELMIRA, N.Y., Nov. 23.—A contest of long endurance piano playing between Mrs. Retta Darrin, of this city, and J. M. Waterbury, of New York city, began here at 8 last night. At midnight Mrs. Darrin was seized with an attack of indigestion, but did not cease playing. She soon rallied and has felt well all day to-day. At 2:20 this afternoon Waterbury stopped playing on account of his hand having swollen very badly. Mrs. Darrin continued and says she will play over 25 hours to beat Waterbury's record. The contest is for $100 and two-thirds of the receipts.

PREACHER'S SORE THROAT.

This is a common malady with hundreds of clergymen in Canada, and requires very careful treatment. The trouble is most prevalent during the spring and late autumn. Very often the symptoms are serious; the irritation is severe and painful; the tonsils become enlarged, and the inflammation extends to the bronchial tubes.

The most effective and simplest remedy yet discovered for the banishment of all these troubles is Harvard Bronchial Syrup. It seems to act with great promptness; it gives instant relief, and quickly removes every danger. The Rev. A. B. Chambers says: "We have used several bottles of Harvard Bronchial Syrup in our family, and believe it to be a good medicine for coughs and colds. I have used it myself for throat irritation and find it very efficacious."

A Prize Portrait Rebus.

This young lady has two brothers and a sister; each one of whose picture is combined in the above portrait. The publishers of the LADIES' PICTORIAL WEEKLY will give a Fine Ladies' Gold Watch to the person who first can make out the faces of the two brothers and sister; to the second a Mantel Clock; to the third a Coin Silver Watch; to the fourth a beautiful pair of Pearl Opera Glasses; to the fifth a Silk Dress Pattern; and a valuable prize will also be given to every person who is able to answer this Picture Rebus correctly, until one hundred prizes have been awarded, if there should be that number answering correctly. Each contestant is to cut out the picture rebus, and make a cross with a lead pencil on the two brothers' and sister's faces, and send same to us with five two-cent postage stamps, for two copies of the LADIES' PICTORIAL WEEKLY, our popular illustrated journal. Answer to-day and enclose ten cents and you may win one of the leading prizes. Address, "P" LADIES' PICTORIAL WEEKLY, 192 King St. West, Toronto, Canada.

THE DRILL HALL.

Ald. Humber, contractor for the drill hall, has been instructed by the resident government engineer, Mr. Gamble, to substitute slate for shingles in the roof of the building, which is now being put on. British Columbia slate, the product of the Jervis Inlet quarries, will be used. A slate roof will certainly add to the appearance and durability of the structure, and Col. Prior, who has made a special hobby of the drill hall, even going so far on one occasion as to threaten to resign his seat in the House if it were not immediately commenced, is to be congratulated upon the improvement. One of the sums voted by the Dominion Parliament for the erection of the building having lapsed, the contractor some weeks ago was informed that the actual appropriation of $15,000 had been exhausted, and no more could be legally paid by the Government. It became a question with him whether he should continue the work or stop until Parliament voted another $20,000. As the rainy season was approaching and it would be an act of stupidity—only equalled by governmental folly in starting a work for which money had not been appropriated—to let the walls remain exposed to the winds and rain of winter, Mr. Humber decided to go on with his contract until the roof was finished. When the slate arrives, a few weeks will suffice to cover the great brick shed, and then, if some arrangement has not been arrived at about the money, the work will come to a sudden halt. Mr. Humber's faith, although strong enough to remove ordinary obstacles, might fail to move the Auditor-General, and in that event he would be out of pocket a good many thousands, until our gallant "Colonel" succeeded in having another appropriation passed. The situation is really a very amusing one to every person, save, perhaps, the Colonel and the contractor. But it has a serious side, also, for it shows the carelessness that characterizes the letting of government contracts. It is a fact, we believe, that the Department of Public Works signed the contract for the Victoria drill hall, which entailed an expenditure of $35,000, believing that the money had been set apart for that purpose. The Minister and his astute deputy apparently were unaware that one vote had lapsed, and that they were placing the contractor in a false position by requiring him to sign a contract which they were powerless themselves to carry out unless by a misdirection of public money. It may be said that the mistake is a trifling one, and that in so far as its effect on the drill hall is concerned it is of "no consequence"; nevertheless, it is important as showing that incompetency in matters of administration still survives at Ottawa.

EVIL DAYS.

We have read with surprise and alarm the dispatch announcing that the Toronto Young Men's Conservative Association has upheld its heretical president, Mr. Armstrong, who was so "fresh" as to hint in his inaugural address that there was something decidedly wrong with the Conservative party. In fact, he was audacious enough to say that there were several things wrong. One of his strongest charges was that the Conservative party was doing nothing to stop the annexation of the Canadian people "in job lots," except, perhaps, to perpetrate a little frothy after-dinner declamation against annexation in general. This was a most wicked thought for Mr. Armstrong to lay before the young and tender members of the association. But he did worse than that. He "freshly" pricked the party in this wise:—"In Dominion politics the policy of the country is formulated and directed by nominally fourteen men, but practically three or four of the Cabinet dictate everything, and they are as autocratic as the Czar of all the Russias. We, who form the party throughout the length and breadth of the country, are simply commanded to vote and think as they direct." This autocratic system, said Mr. Armstrong, "accounts for that death-like apathy which has seized the people so far as political questions are concerned." We found ourselves constrained to join with the Colonist in reprobating Mr. Armstrong's conduct, but it seems that some wicked Grit papers, instead of trying to protect the state by following the same course, actually chuckled over Mr. Armstrong's outbreak, and aided and abetted him in his crime. Wherefore, at a meeting of the Association a week ago, a resolution condemning the tone of the President's address and expressing full confidence in the leaders of the party was moved by Mr. J. Castell Hopkins. We are pained to see, by the way, that the Toronto World irreverently dubs this gentleman "Castile" Hopkins. If the Toronto Young Conservatives had not been wholly given over to evil courses they would have supported Mr. Hopkins and passed his resolution without question. But another member was "fresh" enough to get up and move an amendment supporting the President and endorsing his rebellious address. There was a lively debate, in the course of which the President made a speech that greatly added to his original offense. Then an adjournment for a week was decided upon, but the Young Conservatives do not seem to have profited by the opportunity for cogitation and reflection thus offered them. Monday night they met again and actually passed the amendment, rejecting both Mr. "Castile" Hopkins' loyal resolution and his wise counsel. The situation thus created is just awful, and we frankly confess that we do not know what is to be done about it. As if to add to the distress of all true friends of the country, along comes this report as to the doings of the French Conservative club of Montreal:

Le Club Conservateur had a stormy meeting last night over a resolution of confidence in the de Boucherville Government, moved by F. E. Villeneuve. Half-a-dozen members bitterly denounced the Government, while others declared that the club was not called upon to express any opinion. Finally, after two hours' heated discussion, a vote of confidence in the Government was passed and the meeting broke up in disorder.

Verily hath this country fallen upon evil days when members of any Conservative organization can reconcile it with their sense of fitness to rise up and criticize any Conservative government, local or Dominion. Surely there must be an epidemic of "freshness" broken out among the Conservatives of Toronto and Montreal.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Council at a late hour last night wakened up the firemen by a false alarm. It is a great pity the firemen cannot reciprocate.

Mr. W. W. McDonald, a Conservative gentleman living at Fleming, has been elected by acclamation in Eastern Assiniboia, to take the seat in the Commons vacated by Lieutenant-Governor Dewdney. Mr. McDonald appears to be quite unknown beyond the bounds of the constituency, but he has been given a certificate of character from the Regina Leader, and that should be enough for any man.

The Winnipeg Free Press thus irreverently mocks at the liquor investigation commission:

Our prohibition commissioners are having a good time of it. They sauntered up with delicious leisure from Halifax, and have now got as far as Vancouver; the next move is to take in California, which is somewhat noted for its winter climate. We have not heard that any of them are invalids, but let that pass. There will be a report, which few will read; a big bill, which the country will pay; and then they will disappear and nothing more will be heard of them or their mission. It comes high, but a diversion now and then is necessary in the game of politics.

The Conservatives of Great Britain will early next month hold their annual congress, the proceedings of which are awaited with much interest. One resolution to be submitted will embody the doctrines of the United Empire Trade League, and the colonies will have an especial interest in the fate of this proposal. The congress will also be asked to adopt the principal planks of the platform drawn up by the recent conference of Conservative Associations at Edinburgh. These are of an extremely democratic character, including electoral registration reform, with an equalization of votes and a reduction of the period of occupancy required to qualify voters; approves the extension of the franchise to female ratepayers, the disfranchisement of illiterate voters, popular control of the liquor traffic, state provision for old age, assistance to workingmen to enable them to acquire land for building purposes, an amendment to the factory laws and the passage of acts in the interests of workingmen. A good many of the old timers of the party will be somewhat startled by this proposal to outbid even the Radicals for the support of the masses. But the Conservative party is not what it once was, and the democratic section may be able to carry the day against the older heads' aversion to legislation on popular lines.

Republicans must take a melancholy interest in the following utterance of President Garfield, which has been resurrected for their benefit:—

Duties should be so high that our manufacturers can fairly compete with the foreign product, but not so high as to enable them to drive out the foreign article, enjoy a monopoly of the trade, and regulate the price as they please. To this extent I am protectionist. If our Government pursues this line of policy steadily, we shall year by year approach more nearly to the basis of free trade, because we shall be more nearly able to compete with other nations on equal terms. I am for a protection which leads to ultimate free trade. I am for that free trade which can be achieved only through protection.

Mr. Garfield's party went aside from the road which he would have had it travel. Instead of seeking the destination Free Trade it sought to gain the extreme height of Protectionism, and has now landed in an extremely deep ditch. It committed the very offense which he sternly condemned, of using the tariff to foster monopoly, and now it is paying the penalty.

CONVICT LABOR.

TO THE EDITOR:—Too much credit cannot be given His Worship the Mayor for trying to induce the street committee to employ the idle men of the city instead of buying rock from the government, that was broken by convict labor. The workingmen should remember this at the next election.

ECHOES FROM JOHNSON STREET

TO THE EDITOR:—I observe that two faint echoes of the Colonist issued from the same press, on Johnson street, are busily advocating the qualifications of three gentlemen for the mayoralty. It is strange since "the party" appears to be the great consideration in this case that some one among the faithful who has had training in the business, has not been chosen as suitable for political booming purposes. For the life of me I do not see why a gentleman like Mr. Joseph Hunter should be overlooked, when the members of the party are being considered. Leave out Mr. Rithet, and in the matter of experience and natural ability does not Mr. Hunter stand before any of them? Besides that, I imagine he could give a few years' lessons at least to men whose life study has been nothing more public-spirited than "how can I take 35 per cent. out of the consumer's pocket and put it in my own." But if Mr. Hunter is to be left out in the cold by the Colonist echoes, where, may I ask, does such a man as Simeon Duck stand? He is a gentleman of large experience, is well acquainted with the intricacies and difficulties of public business, and is in no sense a political nobody. If the "party" is to be considered before the state, or rather before the city, by all means remember the men who are in the party. ONE OF THE PARTY.

Catholic Schools in the States.

The convention of Catholic archbishops which met in New York recently did not take a very radical stand on the school question. This was very sensible. Assuming that the denominational school is chiefly useful to Catholic children in comparison with other schools for the religious training which it gives, and that that is the direct object sought to be gained, they have made provision for all children outside of the Catholic children. The decision in the matter, together with the resolutions, was given out by the private secretary of Archbishop Corrigan, Father Connelly, and is entitled "A Report on the Parochial Question."

It is as follows, "At a meeting of the archbishops of the United States, held at the residence of Archbishop Corrigan in New York on the 18th of November, 1892, to consider the best means to provide for the religious education of such children as do not at present attend the parochial schools or Catholic schools of any kind, the assembled prelates unanimously agreed to the following resolutions:

Resolved, To promote the erection of Catholic schools so that there may be accommodations in them for more, and if possible all Catholic children, according to the decrees of the third Plenary Council of Baltimore and the decisions of the Holy See.

Resolved, That as to children who at present do not attend Catholic schools we direct in addition that provisions be made for them by the Sunday schools and also by instructions on some other day or days of the week, and by urging parents to teach their children the Christian doctrine in their homes, both Sunday and week days. The schools should be under the direct supervision of the clergy and by intelligent lay teachers, and when possible by members of religious teaching."

The resolution is clearly a compromise between the two extreme sides of the question.

HE LIVES IN STYLE.

Wandeck, the Embezzler Likes Good Food and Fine Cigars.

Florian L. Wandeck, the alleged embezzler, is living in style at the city lock-up. Wandeck eschews the ordinary prison diet. That is too plebeian for his taste. His meals are furnished by the Wilson House, and he takes them at different hours than the ordinary prison birds. A point has been stretched in Wandeck's favor, and he is permitted the occupancy of one of the female wards. This room he has nicely arranged and is trying to make himself feel as if in a first-class hotel. Wandeck dresses himself in a faultless manner. A clean collar, a pair of cuffs and a change of cravat are indispensable to his daily toilette. He takes particular care of his dainty tapering fingers. Those fingers "that gave him away" are still the treasure of their owner. They are as white as a lady's and are much smaller than the hands of many women.

He reads the latest novels and smokes the best brands of cigars. Every second or third day a barber rings the lockup bell. Mr. Allen, the jailor, escorts the tonsorial artist to the apartments of Mr. Wandeck. And the artist duly slides a sharp-edged razor across the face of the elite embezzler. Mr. Wandeck tries to think himself in the gorgeous shaving parlors of the Golden Gate. He places his limbs in high altitudes; holds a book in one hand and a cigar in the other. He reads a few sentences, then takes a puff. And a joke is cracked with the barber who deftly pushed down the budding beard.

Inspection of Passengers.

Dr. Geo. Duncan, in his capacity as health officer, was on hand at the wharf yesterday afternoon on the arrival of the City of Kingston from Seattle to act if possible in conjunction with Dr. Jones, the Dominion quarantine officer in seeing that neither diseased nor imperfectly protected persons should land. As the Dominion officer would hear of no mutual arrangement in regard to inspection, the city health officer instituted an inspection of his own, with the result that one man who had passed Dr. Jones' inspection, but who could not show evidences of satisfactory vaccination, was returned to the Sound. He was determined not to submit to vaccination. The course taken by the city health officer is the same as that adopted by the mainland cities, where also passengers crossing on the railways into the province from the American side have to submit to the usual regulations. The mayor and council, it is believed, will insist on all inspections being satisfactory to the city health officer.

Over a Century Old.

Mr. D. M. Gordon, ex-provincial police officer, has learned by letter from Sutherlandshire, Scotland, of the death of his mother, at the patriarchal age of 104 years, 3 months and 20 days. The deceased was the mother of 16 children, and a remarkable fact is that the 16 are all twins, eight pairs. The venerable lady was 27 years of age when Waterloo was fought, and went to Belgium after that celebrated battle to nurse her father, who was a British soldier. She never wore spectacles, and on the day of her death walked three miles to church.

The Northern Indians.

Mr. Charles Todd, agent for the northern Indians, came down on the Boscowitz. He reports that the Indians at the southern end of his agency did very poorly this season on account of the short salmon pack. In the north they did better but not as well as usual. The Indians were pretty well frightened when they heard of the smallpox in the cities and the interior Indians rushed off the coast as soon as they had finished their season's work.

Not a Novel.

The night watchman at the fire hall denies that he was reading a third class novel when the fire department was drilled last evening for the edification of the Board of Aldermen. The book he was reading was "Fire and Water," a journal published in the interests of the firemen. The night watchman thinks the reporter who wrote the novel statement must have been full of fire water, without the and.

Not Weevilled This Time.

Captain Budd, of the River Ganges, has laid in a fresh supply of "hard tack." The crew have assured themselves that the biscuits are not weevilled and have gone back to the vessel. Report has it that Capt. Budd, to make amends, has increased the pay of the men.

From the North.

The steamer Barbara Boscowitz arrived from the north this morning. Her passengers were: Bishop Ridley and Mrs. Ridley, C. H. Clough and wife, C. Lundberg, Rev. A. J. Hall, C. Todd, W. Hopkins, N. Furlong, P. Lloyd, 12 Chinamen and 12 Indians.

He Drew a Revolver.

Monday night John Dick and George Corbett got into an altercation at Dick's shack, Johnson street. Dick pulled a revolver on Corbett. Dick was summoned to the police court this morning. He did not appear. A warrant was ordered for his arrest.

Bitten by a Dog.

Mr. R. Offerhaus, a teacher in the Victoria high school, had his hand badly bitten by a dog this morning. He was trying to put the dog out of the school room when it turned and bit him.

Unable to Come.

Owing to the inability of the Westminster team to come to this city, the Association game is unavoidably postponed.

At the regular meeting of Dominion Lodge, I.O.O.F., to be held on Thursday evening, officers will be elected for the ensuing year. A full attendance is requested.

The Steamer Premier.

The steamer Premier is in the Esquimalt dry dock, where she is to undergo repairs. The contract for the repairs will be let on Friday and work will then be pushed to completion.

Committed for Trial.

John Greig charged Aagus McLean in the police court this morning with theft. Greig accused McLean, who was a boarder, with stealing jewelry, clothing and money to the amount of $40. McLean was committed for trial.

Must Clean up.

One of the city's garbage scows is ready and in a few days the city garbage will be taken to sea nightly. As soon as the scows are ready the city health officials will see that back yards are kept clean. A house to house inspection is to be made.

Notice.

The salmon business is about cleared up for the season. There are several carloads more to come in and they will about end it.

A Tremendous Rush.

The Great Star Almanac and Year Book of Montreal is not to be out until the 22nd of this month, but it has leaked out that it is a wonderful almanac, and there is a perfect rush for it. The scramble to get a copy of it is a just tribute to its marvellous worth. It is Almanac, Year Book, Atlas, Encyclopaedia and Ready Reckoner all combined.

Death of Mrs. Williams.

Mrs. Elizabeth Williams, relict of the late Benjamin Williams, died at the family residence, Bellot street, this morning. She had been ill but a few days. The deceased was a native of Glamorganshire, South Wales, aged 60 years. She came to Victoria from New Brunswick in 1879, and has resided here ever since. Three sons, Benjamin, William and Walter Williams, and three daughters are left to mourn the loss of a kind mother. Mrs. Williams was a sister of David Spencer. The funeral will take place on Friday at 2 o'clock from the family residence, View street, and at 2:30 from Christ Church cathedral.

To-night's Grand Concert.

All the reserved seats downstairs and nearly all in the dress circle were taken before two this afternoon for the entertainment under the auspices of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Y.M.C.A. this evening in the Victoria Theatre. There will be a splendid audience present. To accommodate patrons from a distance the Tramway Company will have cars waiting at the following places:—Corner of Douglas and Fort streets, for Jubilee Hospital; corner of Government and Fort streets, for James Bay; corner of Douglas and Yates streets, for the Work Estate; opposite the Postoffice for Esquimalt. These are expected to relieve the pressure fairly well. The Tramway Company will double this service if the exigencies of the case would permit.

Energy and Ideas.

Mr. Harry E. Connon still holds his seat in the city council of Vancouver. He has twice tendered his resignation, the council on both occasions positively declining to accept it. At last Monday night's meeting of the council Ald. Connon occupied his former place. This is a splendid compliment to the brilliant executive talents of the popular agent of the Northern Pacific steamship line. Mr. Connon's style of doing business is of the kind known as getting there, and he is an implacable foe to "humming and hawing" and wasting time with what is popularly known as "chin music." A strong and graceful speaker himself, and in the habit of putting his thoughts into terse, forceful language, he is not fond of listening to the fearful rigmarole and "sounding brass" so common at council boards. One of Mr. Connon's favorite exclamations on entering the Vancouver council chamber was, "Now, gentlemen, we'll saw wood," and they did, and business drove on in a way that made the ratepayers confident that they had the right men at the helm.

The Methodist Church.

The special jurors empanelled to try the case of Macdonald against the Methodist church trustees look weary and worn with their three days' experience of high class litigation. The evidence for the plaintiff is not all in yet and cannot all be taken for at least another day. It is not improbable that the case may not be concluded this week. Plans, drawings, specifications, accounts, correspondence, etc., cover the tables and the floor of the court-room. To-day the expert evidence of Mr. Keen and Mr. Keefer was taken as also that of the foreman in charge of the work.

Speedy Trials Court.

Andrew Wright was brought before Mr. Justice Crease this afternoon to answer to the charge of entering into the house of John Ryan at Port Simpson and stealing five 20-dollar gold pieces and some silver, amounting to $86.50. Being asked whether he wished to be tried before a judge or wait till the next assizes to be tried by a judge and jury, the prisoner choose the former, and the hearing was thereupon at once proceeded with. The trial is still in progress.

Redemptorist Retreat.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the congregation of St. Andrew's Roman Catholic cathedral in the coming mission to be conducted in the church by the Redemptorist Fathers of Seattle. The mission will begin on Sunday next at the 10:30 mass and will be continued for 10 days. The lectures will all be very instructive and the priests are assured of large audiences.

Only an 'Ornery' Panther.

Wm. Hussey, of Shawnigan, brought a panther head to the provincial police this morning and received the usual $5 bounty. The panther was not the "largest seen in years," had not "destroyed hundreds of sheep" and did not measure an appalling number of feet from tip to tip. He was just an ordinary, plain, small, hungry-looking panther.

The Sense of Time in Sleep.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.]

A Massachusetts man tells the following: "I arrived one day at a sleepy Italian town, and joined a party of friends. It was in the late afternoon, and I was very tired. I had been rowing a distance and soon went upstairs, lay down in my boating flannels for a little rest before dressing, and fell directly asleep—one of those stony, moveless sleeps that seem to tire more than rest one. When I awoke I was surprised to see by the light that it was not night, not even morning; but by the shadows of late afternoon, and from my sense of having been asleep a long, long time, I realized that I had slept for twenty-four hours. A little dazed and ashamed of myself, I got ready, went down and joined my friends. They did not seem to pay much attention to my absence; in short, they did not act at all strange, and when I apologized for not having joined them at dinner the day before they said: 'Why you were not here yesterday'; and in some way or other, little by little, it was borne in upon me that I had been asleep about ten minutes. If I had been alone I should certainly have lost a day out of my life."

LIFE IN JAPAN.

Politics Quiet—Departure of Dr. Hepburn—National Characteristics.

[Correspondence of the TIMES.]

HIROSAKI, Nov. 3.—For the most part political tranquility reigns here at the present time. Ito has succeeded to the charge of the prime ministry with great efficiency and power. Many changes have been quickly but quietly effected and the cabinet seems to be gaining the confidence of the people. We cannot, however, accurately predict the result of things in particular till after the Diet meets next month, and the voice of the people is actually and fully heard. As usual, the birth of a new political party is from time to time heralded with a flourish of trumpets but its advent is quickly followed by its extinction. Just now a certain Count Saigo is trying to organize a new party called the "Nationalistic party," but so far has failed to secure much of a following.

Recently some Chicago Fair representatives have visited Japan and by private conferences and public lectures accompanied with lime-light illustrations, have created more and more of an interest in this colossal exhibition. The publication of the reduced rates of travel at the time of the fair by the C.P.N. and R. companies has been received by the public with great satisfaction, and if the traffic increases with the new inducements just offered these companies will be obliged to enlarge their accommodations. Already the C.P.N. is getting the lion's share of the public patronage, and what will it be when the exhibition opens?

The Japanese Press did honor to itself as well as to the persons concerned in the eloquent tributes it paid to the recently deceased poets. The leading paper of Tokyo in a glowing eulogy to John Greenleaf Whittier, classed the Quaker author in the first-class of the world's great poets, and then eloquently called upon the rhyme-makers of this country to cease their singing about such trivial things as objects of nature, &c., &c., and turn their attention to some of the great problems of human life.

Speaking of the Quaker Poet reminds me of the interest the Quaker church is now taking in mission work, especially among the Japanese. A certain Dr. Whitney has been in this country for many years, and as eye and ear physician has endeared himself to the people as few have done. A small Quaker church was organized some time ago and is growing rapidly. Two rich Quaker gentlemen from America have recently been on a visit to Japan for the express purpose of examining the work already done and to enquire into the prospects of future development.

The aged and honored Dr. Hepburn has bidden Japan a long final goodbye. To most of your readers it is not necessary, I am sure, to explain who this gentleman is. It will be remembered that he is one of the pioneer missionaries of this country. Shortly after the opening of Japan to foreign intercourse, the Doctor with two or three other missionaries sent by the Presbyterian Church of the United States, arrived here and began to preach the gospel. Their work was, however, soon interrupted by an Imperial edict, and so they had to wait their time, giving themselves to the study of the language and the customs of the people. The monument which will forever stand to commemorate the memory of Dr. Hepburn is the dictionary he published. If he had accomplished naught else in this country, this in itself would be sufficient to render his name famous to all time. The Doctor is a dear, good man; everybody loves him. Gifted intellectually much above his fellows, yet humble and childlike in disposition, with a heart full of love for his fellow men, ever ready to lend a helping hand to the needy, he leaves Japan to spend the remaining days of his life with his aged and worthy wife in the home land, carrying with him the respect and best wishes of all with whom he has come in contact.

This is the Emperor's birthday; he is 42 and enjoys excellent health. No country is prouder of her ruler than Japan. Indeed, she has reason to be, for no sovereign has done more for his nation than the Emperor of the Kingdom of the Rising Sun. We all pray that he may be long spared to reign over his loyal and loving subjects. The Japanese dearly love a holiday. The year is full of national or local celebrations. Every house has a flag, every school has a banqueting hall, every kid can shout "Banzai," every man is ever ready either to make a 4th of July oration. A little tea and cake will hold a crowd together for hours and hours. To foreigners it appears that more than half the things these people do, they do backwards. They milk the cow on the left side; they lead instead of driving their horses; they build the roof of their houses before they begin to lay the foundations or raise the walls; they clean their teeth before they wash their faces; they call each other by their given name first, and put the Mr. or Mrs. last; so in signing their address, they put the town first, then the ward, then the street, and last the number of the house; in counting fractions they say the "third of one" instead of "one-third"; the horses and cows stand in the stables with their tails in the place where we would expect our animals to keep their heads; and so the tailor sews, the gardener hoes, the carpenter saws and planes, all backwards; while the honored place for a speaker in a public meeting is the very last place.

The young men of Japan are still very anxious to acquire a knowledge of the English language. The Board of Education recently revised the course of study for the government schools and left out English as a necessary study, and the revision met with popular disfavor. Indeed a very largely signed petition was forwarded to the Board, asking for a reversion of their decision. Generally speaking the young men of the country are very quick to pick up the language, as they are in most everything else. Their mistakes, however, are very ridiculous, as ours in their language must be to them. Only yesterday I asked a youth how long he had been studying English, and with a very wise look upon his face he made answer, "About two hundred years, sir." Another blooming lad upon being asked if he wo[illegible] give the forms of government at present existing in South America, answered, "What for you ask me so unuseful information?" Still another told me not long ago that he thought it was Episcopal Columbus who discovered America.

ALDERMEN IN SESSION.

By-laws Returned by the Mayor Reconsidered by the City Council.

A Resolution to Protect the Married Workingmen Passed by the Board.

Ald. Humber was the only absentee at last evening's meeting of the City Council. Mayor Beaven occupied the chair and all the other aldermen were in their places.

The council adopted the minutes of the preceding meetings and then proceeded to deal with the voters' lists by-law, which had been returned to the board by the Mayor for amendment. The Mayor explained that if the by-law passed as it was the council would have to sit daily whether they wished to or not.

The necessary amendments were made.

The local improvement by-law, 1893, was also returned to the council by the Mayor with recommended amendments. The amendments were adopted.

Ald. McKillican moved that View street be widened under the local improvement by-law. The motion was carried.

Ald. Baker moved that Mr. Jordan be paid the month's salary claimed by him.

The Mayor explained that Mr. Jordan was discharged from the sanitary office by the council, but he refused to leave.

Ald. Baker said Mr. Jordan had been told by the commissioners that the council had to give him a month's notice.

The motion was carried.

Ald. Hunter moved, seconded by Ald. Lovell, that other things being equal married men with families be given the preference on city work, and the city engineer be so advised.

Ald. Baker thought some notice should be taken of the unmarried men who had grown up with the country. Then there are many young men in the city who have mothers or brothers and sisters to support. The regular residents of the city should be given preference over married men who come here simply to get a few days' work.

Ald. Lovell thought the officials would use judgment and give the older residents a preference over the stragglers.

Ald. Styles and Bragg knew that the street committee would use good judgment in distributing the work.

Ald. Munn said of course the women and children should be considered, but he thought legislation was going too far when it made a distinction in our own race. It was all very well to legislate against Chinese and inferior immigrants. He, however, would not object to the resolution. If the resolution was brought forward to discourage young men it was very wrong. The resolution was carried.

Ald. Baker moved that the old Esquimalt road within the boundary be graded and sidewalked under the local improvement by-law.

Ald. Hunter explained that the old Esquimalt road crossed the railway and there was no railway crossing. He had been petitioned several times to have a railway crossing made, but he had refused to do so, as the point was a very dangerous one, there being a sharp turn. If the crossing was made there would be daily accidents. It was not a matter of expense, but simply to prevent accidents. If the road was graded from the railway to the Indian reserve it would answer all purposes. The resolution was carried.

REPORTS.

The street committee asked that their action in paying accounts amounting to $344.14 be confirmed. Adopted.

The same committee recommended the payment of accounts amounting to $868.58. Adopted.

The street committee recommended that tenders be called for laying stone crossings in different parts of the city. The estimated cost of the crossings was $1172. They also recommended that the council authorize the expenditure of $7922 out of the $25,000 loan on the streets, and also that a lot of rock be purchased from the provincial government.

The Mayor stated that the rock the government wished to sell had been broken by convicts. It would be much more desirable to have some of the rock around the city broken by corporation workmen.

Ald. Styles was in accord with what the Mayor had said, and thought the rock should be taken off the streets, but it was very difficult to obtain any in the North Ward.

Ald. Bragg hoped that the stone crossings would be laid down better than the present ones.

Ald. Munn would like to know which prisoners broke the rock? If the city prisoners broke the rock it did not seem fair that the city should pay for it, as they paid for the prisoners' board.

Ald. McKillican could not see the necessity of purchasing convict crushed rock when there was plenty in the city. There was a lot of blasted rock that simply needed crushing.

Ald. Baker explained that it would be rather expensive to haul rock from the South to the North Ward. The rock was badly needed for the streets. The rock at the park was to be crushed at once.

Ald. Munn objected. The rock at the park belonged to the park and was needed on the streets. Purchasing convict rock did not go down very well. The Government might have at least given the city the rock at a reduced price, seeing that the city kept the men who had broken the rock.

Ald. Hunter would also protest against the park rock being taken for other streets. He also objected to buying convict broken rock. The report was adopted.

The Old Folks' Home committee recommended that Wm. Bell be admitted to the home. Adopted.

Mr. D. Mills, of Cariboo, was recommended as a suitable person for admittance to the Home, as the Provincial Government had undertaken to pay the expenses incurred by Mills.

Ald. Munn thought arrangements should be made with the Government to pay their share of the expenses of the inmates.

The recommendations in the report were adopted.

The council adjourned at 11:10 p.m.

Mascagni's Great Opera.

The most interesting of the operas to be presented by the Duff Opera Company in their engagement next week is "Cavalleria Rusticana" (literally Rustic Chivalry), by Pietro Mascagni. It is a remarkable composition. A melodrama in melody, a tragedy in tempos, an opera in passion. The libretto of this extraordinary work is a masterpiece of dramatic construction. There are but five characters, but they are disposed with admirable skill. The story is sad. A maid is betrayed by a faithless lover. Her rival, a married woman, has unblushingly met the same fate. The husband murders the miscreant. At the door of the church the maid confesses her shame. Her confessor is the mother of her betrayer. She cannot enter the holy place. Anon she meets her lover and upbraids him. She is repulsed and renounced with scorn. Her rival with the shamelessness of Carmen, approaches to enter the sanctuary. She asserts her supremacy in the bosom of her cavalier Cervantes. The ruined girl tells the wronged husband. The two men meet. A duel follows in the garden. The seducer is murdered and the victim of man's caprice is avenged. An intensely dramatic story, delicately and unoffendingly told.

Refused to be Vaccinated.

Dr. George Duncan, who yesterday assumed his position as city health officer, last evening visited the C. P. N. wharf and examined the passengers coming off the City of Kingston. After they had passed the Dominion health officer Dr. Duncan gave them a second examination. One of the passengers refused to be vaccinated and therefore had to take the alternative and return to Seattle.

The Cutter Corwin.

The revenue cutter Corwin has arrived at San Francisco from Sand Point. She cruised north for eight months this year and seized the steamer Coquitlam and the sealing schooner Henrietta. It does not look like much work, but in the first instance she started up a regular hornet's nest.

WESTMINSTER WIRINGS.

Mrs. Cunningham Speaks up on the Prohibition Issue.

NEW WESTMINSTER, Nov. 23.—The liquor commission sat here yesterday afternoon. There was only an hour's intimation of the session, consequently few people were present at the commencement. Mayor Townsend, Magistrate Atkinson, Governor Moresby, Chief Houston, J. C. Brown, M.P.P., I. B. Fisher, Rev. Robson and Mrs. Jas. Cunningham gave evidence. With the exception of Messrs. Brown and Robson and Mrs. Cunningham, all did not believe in prohibition. The officials thought the licensing law acted well. Mr. Moresby contending that there should be a more rigid inspection of licensed houses and the quality of liquors. Mr. Brown thought it would be hard to test the feeling regarding prohibition by a general election, and said the present Government would never pass a prohibition law. Others said prohibition was impracticable in the present state of public feeling. Mrs. Cunningham was flat-footed for prohibition; drink, in the opinion of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, of which she was president, was an unmitigated evil to all homes and to the community at large. All concurred that the city would compare favorably with any other in point of order.

The jury in the case of McLean Bros. vs. Richmond municipality gave a verdict for the plaintiffs, $4970 balance due on contract, planking and building roads. Also $1095 damages for delay.

PURE BOTTLED LIQUOR.

Nowhere Else in Canada is it so Pure as in British Columbia.

VANCOUVER, Nov. 23.—The commission on the liquor traffic held a session this morning when Mayor Cope, City Clerk McGuigan, Police Magistrate Jordine, Chief of Polic McLaren, H. Abbott and others testified. All declared the result of the license system good, that prohibition was impracticable in this province and that brewers and distillers should be compensated should prohibition be established. J. E. Miller, collector of inland revenue, declared that the bottled liquor drunk in British Columbia was purer than anywhere else in Canada.

The congregation of Christ Church, Episcopal, is likely to have more trouble. The C.P.R. has taken steps to evict them, and it is now stated that Bishop Sillitoe is approaching the church wardens with a view to introducing Ritualism into the church, which has heretofore been evangelistic.

W. H. Higgings, a timber cruiser, was arrested yesterday, charged with obtaining money under false pretences.

The liquor commissioners leave tomorrow for Pasadena, Cal.

Hydraulicing has been begun on the Van Winkle claim near Lytton.

A KENTUCKY FEUD.

Brief Story of the Eversole Trouble in Perry County.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.]

The latest and most famous of all the Kentucky feuds was that of Perry county. Old Joe Eversole, a merchant and lawyer, was the boss of Perry county up to 1886. The Eversole family held all the offices and all the trade worth having, and when young B. F. French came over from Breathitt in 1886, and from teaching school began to set himself up as a business and political rival of the Eversoles, that haughty clan resented his impertince in the usual mountain fashion. But French had brains and money on his side. A lucky deal as agent for a mineral land syndicate made him a wealthy man for the mountains, and he made up for his want of blood relatives by hiring assassins at $1.50 a day and supplying them with Winchesters. Old Joe Eversole was killed, and nearly 30 other members of the gang went down before the superior generalship of the French faction. The Eversoles had all been scattered or exterminated when the State took a hand. A grand jury, guarded by troops, found nearly 400 indictments against members of the factions, and the State troops helped to make the arrests. The whole gang was taken to Winchester for trial, and the cases have been dragging along there for several years, with no convictions. French himself, under several indictments, has taken up his residence at Winchester to practice law. There is little chance for convicting him for any of the crimes committed by his gang. There is still bad blood between the survivors, but they are cowed at last by the grasp of the law.

The New Alaska Volcano.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 21.—The revenue cutter Corwin has arrived here after an eight months' cruise in Alaskan waters. About the most exciting incident of the cruise took place September 14, when the Corwin was off Sand Point. It was at that time when a new volcano broke out on the Alaskan peninsula, inland from Cape St. John. The birth of the volcano was marked by heavy shocks of earthquake which shook the country for many miles around. The Corwin was many miles at sea when the eruption began and yet she got a very lively shaking up. It was nearly a dead calm and about 9 o'clock at night when the ship began to tremble violently from stem to stern. Some of the men were nearly thrown off their feet and nearly all grew sick, so peculiar was the sensations. The shock lasted nearly five minutes, and during that time the sea had a strange yellowish appearance. Mr. Applegate, of Sand Point, reported having seen the volcano, and the bearings he took showed it to be about 50 miles in from Cape St. John and in the section of country not yet explored. He reports the crater as vomiting out immense quantities of lava and ashes and the country seemed to be ablaze for miles around. One vessel within reach of the volcano's effect, the schooner Helen, of Seattle, was caught by something akin to a tidal wave and washed ashore near Cape Runkoff. The Corwin people discovered her October 28. A shovelling party was sent ashore to dig a canal to the water, and when this was accomplished the cutter hauled the Helen afloat. On the Corwin's way down she passed the rescued schooner at Sand Point, apparently seaworthy and sound. In Capt. Hooper's summary of the cruise the Corwin is put down as steaming 22,000 miles during the summer.

Cubb's Cough Cure

ANTISEPTIC.

Do you know what an ANTISEPTIC is? We will tell you. It is a medicine or application which arrests decay or putrefaction and heals. The application of antiseptic preparations has made it possible for surgeons to do what was never dreamed of, because antiseptics stop all formation of corrupt matter. We do the same in our Cough Cure.

A Cough or other Lung Disease speedily causes decay. The best proof of this is the putrid phlegm which you spit up. Cubb's Cough Cure IMMEDIATELY arrests this decay and the cure follows with surprising rapidity. If you have a COUGH, or your child has whooping cough, ONE DOSE, or at most TWO will make you our friend.
